LandLeader Adds Three Brokerages to Exclusive Network of Land Specialists

Windsor, Colorado - June 11, 2015 - LandLeader LLC, a national recreational real estate marketing and listing company, recently added three rural land real estate brokerages to their national group of land professionals. Corder & Associates in Montana, Allied Realty in Maine and Land & Lakes Real Estate Co. in upper Michigan join the leading group of brokers to benefit from LandLeader's exclusive marketing platform.

LandLeader, an organization of exclusive member Brokers who specialize in outdoor recreational, timber, farm, ranch and luxury country properties, has over 150 agents listing properties with a combined value at over $1.6 billion, and offers its members cutting edge marketing strategies not found anywhere else in the rural real estate industry.

Dax Hayden, LandLeader's Managing Director comments, "We are excited to have new members join our team, bringing their local knowledge of the land and real estate industry to these areas of the country. They are experts in their regions and we look forward to marketing their brokerages and their properties!"

Corder & Associates owners Trampus and Staci Corder commented on joining LandLeader, "We are so excited to be part of the LandLeader family. Our partnership raises the bar for our clients offering them the most experience, marketing power, knowledge and professionalism in the real estate market today." Mark Schoenthaler of Allied Realty echoed Corder's thoughts, "Land Leader has been a natural fit for the properties I market and sell in Western Maine. My clients are impressed with the additional coverage their properties receive and the expertise of the Land Leader staff to provide first class support. I am honored to be part of this dynamic team."

Over the last year, broker membership has doubled in size, but LandLeader is seeking only the best brokers and agents. "We aren't seeking all brokers, but the best brokers that represent trust, integrity and success in representing landowners," says Hayden.

LandLeader is one of the fastest growing outdoor specialty real estate groups and has agents in 35 states. Go to www.landleader.com to learn more about LandLeader and its members.
